CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INFORMATION REPORT

This material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws, Title 18, U.S.C. Secs. 793 and 794, the transmission or revelation of which in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

DUNITY  USER (Krasnodar Kray)  REPORT  Port of Novorossiyek  NO. OF PAGES  REQUIREMENT NO. RD  REFERENCES  This is UNEVALUATED Information  THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT AND DEPARTMENT.  ITH APPRAISAL OF COMING IS INVALVE.  (FOR ANY SEE REVERS)  1.  2. Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, as single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They that a flag at the after staff harmer and stokie; others fiew a similar flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a torped others.  about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. They had no they are antiships was approximately to maters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately to maters; they were painted dark grey on both hull then those above, avarded and capture; they were alert. Some passenger miles bett on the eastern side of the grain plate. The green light on the seatern side of the grain corner and not on the eastern corner. The following services are a report to the eastern side of the grain plate. A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DNT, and oil tanker of 8,000 DNT, and oil tanker of 8,000 DNT.	Port of Novorossiysk    DATE DISTR.   7 November 1955
NO. OF PAGES  NO. OF PAGES  NO. OF PAGES  REQUIREMENT NO. RD  REFERENCES  This is UNEVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DETINITIVE.  THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DETINITIVE.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.  TOR ARY SEE REVESE!  1.  1.  2. Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They they aftag at the after staff hammer and slockle; others flaw a similar flag with bulle field). They had no torpado tubes:  about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard and ships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were altert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern of of the green pier. The green light on the sea and of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Tugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DNT, and  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge,  THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  THE APPRAISAL OF CONTINUES INTERVALIVE.  (FOR REV SEE REVERSE)  Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were amount of the start of the similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller they were alort. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant thips were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and
NO. OF PAGES 2  NO. OF PAGES 2  REQUIREMENT NO. RD  REFERENCES  This is UNEVALUATED Information  THE SOURCE EVALUATIONS IN THIS REPORT ARE DEFINITIVE.  ITE APPRAISA OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.  (FOR REY SEE REVESSE)  1.  1.  1.  1.  1.  2. Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, as single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward art, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff hammer and sickle; other of lew a similar riag with blue field). They had no torped tubes, about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard and superstructure. Approximately fritem motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the vestern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DMT, and 10,000 DMT.  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge,  It appears to continue tentaine.  The source evaluations in this sepont are definitive.  It appears to continue tentaine.  (TOW ARY see severe)  Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, as single mate, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and furnel. They far a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue fleid). They had no about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alext. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: oil tanker of 8,000 by.
Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge,  a single mant, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing in haumer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  about 30 meters long and had an approximate epec of 15 knots. The freeboard and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied werehant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern aid of the grain pier. The green light on the sea and of pier No. 2 was situated on the western A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DMT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR RE-REVIEW	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, the appeals of content is tentative.  The source evaluations in this metors are definitive.  The appeals of content is tentative.  (FOR MEY SEE REVERSE)  Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel, going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller they may be motor patrol boats which were smaller they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships on arrival and departure; pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: oil tanker of 8,000 by.
Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge,  a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions  (some flew a green fleg with a red retented in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue fleld). They had no torpedo tubes.  about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard and superstructure. Approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hul and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompained merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port:  A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DNT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  torpedo tubes.  about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and sunderstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than when the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the vector pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the vector pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the vector corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: oil tanker of 8,000 bwT.
Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They fiev a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes. about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard and superstructure. Approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the see and of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT.  S-E-C-R-E-T	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flev a fiag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a harmout about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. They freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: oil tanker of 8,000 bwT.
Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They fiew a flag at the after starf hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea and of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT.  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were as follows:  They were a flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a harmer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied werehant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: oil tanker of 8,000 bwT.
Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a harmer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torped tubes.  about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard and superstructure. Approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were along and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sas and of pier No. 2 was situated on the western A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to
Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to
2. Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aff, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staif (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  About 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanded merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to
2. Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aff, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staif (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a harmer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanded merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  S-E-C-R-E-T	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to
2. Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aff, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staif (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a harmer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanded merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  S-E-C-R-E-T	Three or four motor patrol boats were at pier No. 1. They had an open bridge, a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to
a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to
a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to
a single mast, a rather low funnel; going from forward aft, the relative positions were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	were as follows: bridge, mast, and funnel. They flew a flag at the after staff (some flew a green flag with a red rectangle in the upper left corner bearing a hammer and sickle; others flew a similar flag with blue field). They had no torpedo tubes.  They were about 30 meters long and had an approximate speed of 15 knots. The freeboard amidships was approximately two meters; they were painted dark grey on both hull and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	and superstructure. Approximately fifteen motor patrol boats which were smaller than those above, guarded and accompanied merchant ships on arrival and departure; they were alert. Some passenger ships berth on the eastern side of the grain pier. The green light on the sea end of pier No. 2 was situated on the western corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port:  A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to  S-E-C-R-E-T  25 YEAR  RE-REVIEW	corner and not on the eastern corner. The following merchant ships were in port: A Yugoslav oil tanker of 8,000 DWT, and oil tanker of 8,000 to
25 YEAR RE-REVIEW  S-E-C-R-E-T  NAVY NAVY NAVY NAVY NAVY NAVY NAVY NAVY	10,000 DWT. 011 tanker of 8,000 to
25 YEAR RE-REVIEW
25 YEAR RE-REVIEW	그는 수 되는 사람들은 사람들이 되었다면 하는 수 있습니다.
RE-REVIEW
E X ARMY Y NAVY

